

House of Music and Lutherie

Step into Maestro Giuseppe Severeni medieval house in the town of Randazzo, situated in the foothills of Mt Etna.

Giuseppe will take you through the history of music, from prehistory to renaissance and beyond. Ancient instrument made by Giuseppe will be bought back to life and played in the candlelight.

A philosophically enlightening experience, that will give you a glimpse of how music fits in the great workings of the universe, according to the geniuses of the past like Galileo Galilei.
